BANKING IN A MODERN OFFICE SPACE

A variety of materials and furniture to separate the space into office zones.

Object

Volksbank eG Villingen, Schwenningen,
Germany

Concept

MUFFLER ARCHITEKTEN BDA/DWB,
Tuttlingen, Germany

Photos

Brigida González, Stuttgart

STARTING POINT

Conversion and extension of the bank's head office space.

SOLUTION

The new building comprises the entire back office. Different materials and furniture can be used to divide its open floor plan into individual zones. Curtains act as optical room dividers and significantly contribute to the room's acoustics. The executive area is housed in the quieter area, where Solista and Unilargo combine into a representative look.
